ACTS AND RULES DECLARED TO APPLY TO THE CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION OF BANGALORE.

OFFICE NOTE

Letter from Foreign Department No. 3084 I., dated 9th September 1885.

On the assignment by H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore to the British Government of the lands now termed the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore on the 25th March 1881, the Government of India in the Foreign Department, by Notification No. 126 G. P., dated 28th April 1881, declared that "all laws, regulations and rules in force in the aforesaid lands on the 28th day of March 1881, shall be deemed to be now in force therein."

Serial No. 2.

2. Subsequently, in letter No. 123 I. J., dated the 1st June 1881, (paras 4-8), the Government of India in the Foreign Department remarked that the provision made by the Notification of the 28th April 1881 was merely temporary, and to afford to the Resident time to submit a draft Notification on the model of that published for the Cantonment of Secunderabad (Notification No. 213 J., dated the 24th October 1873), dealing substantively with all the law in force in Bangalore and adopting it to the altered conditions of the place. Such a Notification was, in the opinion of the Government of India, necessary; because most of the Acts then in force had been extended to Bangalore in common with the rest of Mysore, and the modifications which had been made in them to meet the case of the whole State were quite inapplicable when the Acts were restricted in their operation to Bangalore. For instance, there were repeated references in the Acts to the "territories of Mysore," "Deputy Commissioner," "Commissioner," "Chief Commissioner," "Mysore Gazette" and similar offices and things which were no longer applicable.

Serial No. 3.

Serial No. 2.

Serial No. 1.

3. The Government of India considered that in the case of such an important station as Bangalore, it would be insufficient simply to declare that the Acts in question should be read mutatis mutandis. That Government therefore requested the Resident to submit the draft Notification required with as little delay as was compatible with the care and scrutiny with which each Act, and, in some cases, each section of an Act, should be examined before it was entered on the list.

4. The Government of India explained at the same time that certain rules relating to the constitution of the Civil and Criminal Courts in Mysore had been excepted from the Notification of the 28th April 1881, because they did not appear to be applicable to the Courts which had been newly constituted for Bangalore. If, however, any of such rules appeared applicable to the Civil and Military Station, the Resident was authorized to enter such rules in the draft Notification.

Serial No. 4.

5. A list of Acts (not rules) in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore (showing the modifications which were rendered necessary by the altered circumstances of the Station) was prepared in this office and submitted on the 27th February 1882, to Mr. J. D. Sandford, who had been for several years Judicial Commissioner of Mysore and who was at the time officiating as Resident. An explanatory Office Note was also submitted at the same time.

Serial No. 5.

Serial No. 6.

6. Under Mr. Sandford's orders, the list was, with letter No. 295—125, dated the 10th May 1882, sent to the Officiating Chief Judge of Mysore, Mr. C. G. Plumer, for opinion as to the correctness of the list and of the modifications suggested.

7. Mr. Plumer replied in his letter No. 377—219, dated 13th June 1882, to the effect that the list was correct, and that he had entered in the 5th column of the list some modifications which he suggested in addition to those made by the office.

Serial No. 7.
Serial No. 4.

8. Mr. Sandford passed his orders on the list regarding Mr. Plumer's suggestions, and the list was thereupon submitted to the Government of India in the Foreign Department with letter No. 678—147, dated the 24th June 1882.

Serial No. 8.

9. It was explained in that letter that while the modifications necessary to adopt the Acts to the altered conditions of the Station had been carefully made, the Sections or portions of them which had no signification as applied to the place had, for the sake of simplicity, been allowed to remain.

10. It was also explained that certain Acts noted on the margin which had been separately *recommended for introduction into the Station were included in the list.

Act XXV of 1881 (Negotiable Instruments Act).
" IV of 1882 (Transfer of Property).
" VI of 1882 Companies).
" VIII of 1882 (Indian Penal Code Amendment).
" X of 1882 (Criminal Procedure).
" XIV of 1882 (Civil Precedure).

11. It was added that a list of rules in force in the Civil and Military Station was in course of preparation and would be submitted in a short time. It was recommended however that the Notification dealing with the Acts be published at once.

12. The list of Acts was then published by the Government of India in the Foreign Department in Notification No. 2252 I., dated the 7th August 1883, and by that Notification it was declared that all the Acts named therein apply to the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore to the extent and subject to the modifications specified opposite to each.

Serial No. 12.

13. In communicating the Notification above cited to this office the Government of India remarked (in letter No. 2253 I., dated 7th August 1883) that the Notification formally re-extended to Bangalore all the Acts which were in force there before the Rendition of Mysore to Native Rule, and which had since been kept alive by Notification. It did not include Acts subsequently newly extended, e. g., the Kazi's Act, the Indian Companies Act, &c. It was added that all the Acts now in force in the Station, viz., those which had been in force in the Station before the Rendition, and those which had been extended subsequent to that event, would be embodied in a general Notification which was then under preparation.

Serial No. 13.

14. With letter No. 639 I., dated the 20th February 1884, the Government of India in the Foreign Department sent for the use of this office 50 copies of a list of all the Acts then in force in the Civil and Military Station including those that had been declared to apply and those that had been recently extended. It was explained that that list was furnished in lieu of the general Notification which had been promised in letter No. 2253 I., dated the 7th August 1883, and that such a general Notification would not be published. This terminated the correspondence regarding the Acts in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

Serial No. 20.
Serial No. 13.

15. The next question relates to the rules in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore. It will be seen from para 11 above that a list of rules, with modifications suited to the present circumstances of the Civil and Military Station, was promised in letter No. 678—147, dated the 24th June 1882, addressed to the Government of India.

Serial No. 8.

16. A list of rules in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore was prepared in this office after an examination of the several volumes of the Mysore Gazette from the year

Serial No. 21.

*The letters recommending the extension of these Acts are in File No. 465 of 1885 (Extension of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

1867, and the modifications required to be made in each rule so as to suit it to the circumstances of the Civil and Military Station, was noted in it, and the list was submitted with an explanatory note to Mr. Sandford on the 30th October 1882. It was suggested in the Office Note that the list of Revenue Rules be referred to some officer of revenue experience for check.

Serial No. 22.

17. Mr. Sandford was thereupon pleased to direct—

Serial No. 22.

(1) that the Revenue Rules should be sent to the Dewan,

(2) that the Excise Rules should be sent to Major Maltby the Magistrate and Superintendent of Excise Revenue in the Station, and

(3) that all the other rules (chiefly judicial) should be sent to the Chief Judge of Mysore, for opinion.

18. Accordingly, letters issued to those officers as follows :—

(1) To Dewan No. 1789—344, dated 7th November 1882.
Serial No. 23.

(2) To Magistrate, Civil and Military Station, No. 1791—805, dated 7th November 1882.
Serial No. 25.

(3) To the Chief Judge No. 1790—804, dated 7th November 1882.
Serial No. 24.

19. The Chief Judge replied by his letter No. 1612—987, dated 21st November 1882 stating that he had noted his suggestions in the column of remarks in the list sent to him.

Serial No. 27.
Serial No. 26.

20. The District Magistrate of the Civil and Military Station returned with his letter No. 474—43, dated 24th November 1882, the list sent to him, and he made no corrections in it.

Serial No. 28.

21. Mr. Sandford then again examined the *list of rules with the modifications suggested by the Chief Judge, and directed that a reference be made to the Comptroller of Mysore, who was also Superintendent of Stamps for the Civil and Military Station, inquiring what were the rules under the Stamp Act in force in the Station. This inquiry was made in letter No. 1985—905, dated the 2nd December 1882.

*Serial No. 26.
Serial No. 29.

22. In reply, the Comptroller sent with his letter No. 2274, dated 21st December 1882, a pamphlet containing the rules under the Stamp Act published up to July 1876 and a list specifying the Notifications published after that date.

Serial No. 31.

23. The Dewan's reply in regard to the Revenue Rules not having been received for a long time, reminders were sent to him as noted on the margin.

No. 1133—234, dated 24th August 1883. Serial No. 32.
No. 2647—518, dated 8th March 1884. Serial No. 33.
D. O. letter dated 16th March 1885. Serial No. 35.
No. 114—27, dated 17th April 1885. Serial No. 36.

24. The Dewan replied in his letter No. 4, dated 5th April 1885. With that letter he sent a list of 8 rules, which he said appeared to have been omitted from the list forwarded from this office. He stated that the Revenue Law is at present in a very confused state, and that he was unable to say that the list sent by him was exhaustive. The Dewan added that, so far as the State of Mysore was concerned, the Revenue Law had recently been codified, and that the draft code which contained adequate provisions in all matters relating to the Land Revenue would be sent to this office (for submission to the Government of India for app) at an early date.

Serial No. 37.

25. The question of the rules in force in the Civil and Military Station is at present at this stage.

26. A letter (No. 3084 I., dated 9th September 1885) has recently been received from the Government of India inquiring when the list of rules in question would be submitted.

Serial No. 38.

27. The *list of rules which was ordered upon by Mr. Sandford was, as shown above, prepared in 1882, and the modifications noted in it were made to suit the administration of the Civil and Military Station as it then existed. Since then, that is, during the past three years, considerable changes have been effected in the administration of the Station; for example, the powers of the High Court have been transferred from the Chief Judge of Mysore to the Resident, the powers of "Collector" and "Amildar" which were formerly exercised by the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District and the Amildar of the Bangalore Taluk respectively, have now been vested in the District Magistrate and the 2nd Magistrate who have been respectively appointed "Collector" and "Amildar" for the Station; and the revenues of the Assigned Tract, which were formerly lodged in the Bangalore District Treasury, are now kept in the Resident's Treasury.

*Serial No. 21.

28. All these changes have necessitated a careful revision of the list formerly prepared, before it can be submitted to the Government of India. I regret that owing to the pressure of work in the office during the past few months and the other arrears which were on my hands, and which have been to a great extent now cleared away, I have not been able to give much attention to this very heavy case. It will, however, be taken up as soon as I return from leave, and I hope to be able to finish the work within a month.

29. The case will afterwards have to be gone into by the Assistant Resident and the Resident, and, as this also will take some time, it is believed that the case will not be ready for submission to the Government of India much before the end of the current calendar year.

30. It is respectfully submitted therefore that a reply may be sent to the recent letter from the Government of India (No. 3084 I. dated 9th September 1885) to the effect that the list of rules, which was prepared so far back as October 1882, has been delayed in submission owing to certain information in regard to the Revenue Rules which had been called for from the Durbar having been received but recently, that the list is now being again carefully revised in this office having regard to the recent *changes in the administration of the Civil and Military Station, and that it will be submitted to the Government of India before the end of the current calendar year.

Serial No. 21.

*These should be briefly alluded to, as in para 27 of this Note.

L. A. 8—10—85.

31. A note submitted to the Assistant Resident on this case and containing his remarks is marked No. 34 in this File.

L. A. 8—10—85.

32. The note now submitted was called for by Mr. Martindale on 19th March last, as explained in para 28th. Mr. Anantaswamy Rao attributes the delay to pressure of work and his absence on leave. Mr. Anantaswamy Rao returned from leave on 12th Instant.

33. A reminder has again been just received from the Foreign Office, so the matter should be taken up with expedition.

34. Mr. Anantaswamy Rao has submitted a careful and exhaustive history of the case. It appears that the Government of India in their Foreign Department Notification No. 639 J., dated 20th February 1884 (vide para 14 of note) settled the question of the Acts to be in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

35. With reference to the rules it appears that a list was prepared during October 1882, which in the following month was submitted to the Chief Justice, Collector and Magistrate, Comptroller of Mysore and the Dewan for their information and suggestions. With the exception of the Dewan all the above mentioned officers submitted their replies before the end of the year.

The Dewan's reply was not received till 5th April 1885 (vide para 24).

36. As pointed out in para 27, many changes have taken place since 1882 in the administration of the Civil and Military Station which necessitate a careful inspection and revision of the old rules. Mr. Anantaswamy Row hopes to complete the revision by the 8th of November, but I will see if he cannot submit the rules at a somewhat earlier date. As soon as the revised rules are prepared, it will be necessary to re-submit them for the opinion of the Chief Justice, Collector and Magistrate, and Dewan.

37. Meanwhile an answer may be sent to the Foreign Office reminders that the submission of the Rules has been delayed owing to a pending reference from the Mysore Durbar, that an answer has nowbeen received, and that the rules will be submitted to the Government of India as soon as the opinion of the administrative officers concerned have been received which should not cause any considerable delay.

J. H. N. 26—10—85.

38. Please draft ad-interim answer to the F. O. in the sense of paras 27, 30, 37 of this Note. Let this be done at once.

39. The Assistant Resident is requested to keep this case well in view and not to allow any avoidable delay.

Resident. Draft submitted. J. H. N. 31—10—85.

40. Draft passed. When the rules have been received back from all the officers consulted, and have been finally *revised by the Sheristadar they should be very quickly printed on half margin for the ultimate consideration of the Assistant Resident and myself.

41. Issue draft, and let me know by what date the revised rules will be submitted. I should like to see them before they are forwarded to local officers for their suggestions.

J. H. N. 1—11—85.

42. Letter to the Government of India, Foreign Department (No. 2131—464, dated 2nd November 1885) despatched to-day.

43. With reference to the Assistant Resident's query at para 41, I beg to state that no pains will be spared in completing the revision of the rules as soon as possible. As there is much court work and office work on my hands, I think it will take me till the 15th of this month to submit the list of rules to the Assistant Resident.

L. A. 3—11—85.

J. H. N. 3—11—85.

44. I have seen Mr. Anantaswami Rao to-day, and he informs me he will, without fail, have the revised rules ready for circulation by the 3rd January. I can only hope he will not fail me: it will be seen from para 43 that he promised to submit them by the 15th November. Six weeks have almost elapsed since then, and still the work is incompleted.

J. H. N. 22—12—85.

45. A revised list of rules in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore is herewith submitted with suitable modifications. The rules are arranged in chronological order.

Serial No. 4

46. The Notifications issued from time to time in Mysore during the past 20 years being very large in number, only such of them as have the force of law have been included in this list. These are chiefly Notifications issued by the Government of India or issued by the Chief Commissioner of Mysore under the sanction of that Government. For this procedure there is the authority of Mr. Sandford who remarked in regard to the Rules relating to Treasure Troves that "if they are only under the Commissioner's

(Chief Commissioner's) authority, they are not law and should be omitted," and again in regard to the rules for the maintenance and repair of Boundary marks, that "if only Chief Commissioner's authority, they cannot be law."

47. Taking the Rules in the order in which they are given in the list submitted to Mr. Sandford in 1882, I beg to bring to notice such points as appear deserving of remark.

Serial No. 21.

48. Rules (1) and (2) relating to Government servants holding lands.—Mr. Sandford directed that these Rules should be omitted as not law. The rules in question can only be regarded as an executive order of the Commissioner (afterwards Chief Commissioner) of Mysore and are not law. They are therefore omitted in the list now submitted.

Marked A.

49. Rule (3) regarding Treasure Troves.—In regard to these Rules Mr. Sandford was pleased to remark that if it was issued only on the Commissioner's authority, it cannot be law, and should be omitted. It does appear from the wording of the Notification containing the Rules that the Rules were issued only on the Commissioner's authority, and they are, strictly speaking, not law. But the matter is one which requires legal provision being made for it, and the Rules would seem to have been acted upon in Mysore as having the force of law. I have therefore ventured to include the rules in the revised list with the requisite modifications, and it would perhaps be well to submit the matter for the orders of the Government of India. If that Government be pleased to sanction the application of the Rules to the Civil and Military Station, the rules at once become law.

Marked B.

50. Rule (4)—The Mysore Land Inam Rules. Rule (5)—Rule debarring judicial courts to question the validity of the Inam Settlement. Rule (6)—Rules for the settlement of Ready Money Grants. Rule (7)—Rules under Rule 21 of the Mysore Land Inam Rules. Mr. Sandford was of opinion that these Land Inam Rules should not be included in the list of Rules for the Civil and Military Station. This was probably because the work of the Inam Settlement has been completed in Mysore and the object of the Rules has been fulfilled. But the Rules, it is submitted, not only contain instructions for the conduct of the Inam Settlement, but contain also some provisions which are intended to be in force even after the completion of that Settlement. For instance Rule XVII of the Inam Rules provides that inams once converted into permanent and alienable property under the Rules will be subject to no further interference on the part of Government except for the realization of the quit-rent. Again Rule XXVI of the Inam Rules fixes the liability of Inamdars to pay the irrigation and local cesses imposed by Government. The Rule (5) which debars the judicial courts from questioning the Inam Commissioner's settlement is clearly one which is needed after the completion of the Inam Settlement. For these reasons the Inam Rules have been included in the revised list herewith submitted. It may be added here that the Dewan has, in his letter No. 4, dated the 5th April 1885, suggested that these Rules should be included in the list.

Serial No. 37.

51. It is further submitted with reference to these Rules, that in such portions of them as relate to the Inam Settlement which has already been completed, no modifications have been made. For instance when a certain power is conferred on the Inam Commissioner by the Rules, no words have been substituted for "Inam Commissioner", because there is no one now in the Civil and Military Station to perform the functions of the Inam Commissioner, and there is no need to have any such officer.

52. I have ventured to add to the list the Rules for the maintenance and repair of Field Boundary marks issued on the 20th August 1868 under the authority of Commissioner of Mysore. I have inserted these rules because an amendment of these Rules contained in the Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 179, dated 14th August 1876 was entered in the original list. In regard to the latter Mr. Sandford was pleased to remark that if the Rules had been issued on the Chief Commissioner's authority they could not be law. As both the Rules appear to have been issued on the Chief Commissioner's authority, they may, it is submitted, be omitted.

Marked C.

Rule 30, page 18 of Serial No. 21. (marked A. A.)

53. Rule 8—Rules for the guidance of officers in the administration of European Vagrants.

Page 4 of Serial No. 21. Marked F.

These Rules were issued by the Government of India for British India under the European Vagrancy Act XXI of 1869 and were not extended to the territories of Mysore or to Bangalore. They were however included in the first list submitted to Mr. Sandford on the ground that the Act was in force in the Civil and Military Station. Mr. Sandford, however, was pleased to remark that the Rules must have been *superseded by Act IX of 1874. On examination, it is found that only certain sections of Act XXI of 1869 applied of their own force to Mysore as being a Native State in alliance with Her Majesty. The remaining sections of the Act with the exception of sections 1 and 2 were, however, subsequently extended to the Bangalore District including the Town and Cantonment of Bangalore, by Notification No. 1214, dated the 9th June 1871. The Rules framed under section 34 of the Act by the Government of India were however never declared to apply to Bangalore. When the list of Acts in force in the Civil and Military Station was submitted to the Government of India in 1882, Act IX of 1874 which had repealed Act XXI of 1869 was entered in the list, but the Government of India in publishing that list omitted that *Act. Considering all these circumstances it does not appear that the Rules in question can be held to be in force in the Civil and Military Station.

* I should certainly think so—If the Act under which the Rules were framed is repealed, surely the rules also become waste paper. E. P. M.

56. I have here added a new rule relating to the sale of stamps under the General Stamp Act. The Rules are contained in Notification No. 209, dated the 23rd September 1870, printed at page 57 of the pamphlet on the Stamp Law received with letter No. 2274, dated 21st December 1882, from the Comptroller of Mysore.

59. Rule 13—Rules for the management and discipline of the Government Workhouse at Bangalore.—These Rules were issued for Bangalore under section 14 of the European Vagrancy Act XXI of 1869 with the sanction of the Government of India. That Act has however been repealed by Act IX of 1874, but section 14 of the latter Act under which the Rules above cited have to be framed has not been extended to the Civil and Military Station. Under these circumstances it is doubtful whether the Rules framed under the old Act can be held to apply now. When the list of Rules is circulated, Major Maltby, the District Magistrate, may be requested to state whether there is a Government Workhouse now and whether the Rules have to be retained.

Marked K.

I think not. E. P. M.

60. Rule 14—Rules for the collection of Excise duties.—These Rules relate to the Octroi duties which are levied by the Municipality. The modifications are the same as those which were made in the first list prepared and which were approved of by the District Magistrate in his letter No. 474—43, dated the 24th November 1882. I have however now made two corrections in Rules 1 and 2 in regard to the articles subject to payment of duty and the amount of duty to be paid. These corrections are based upon a revision of these duties which was made in 1879-80 under the sanction of the Government of India by which betel-nut was removed from the list of octroi paying articles, and cocoanut was inserted instead. It may be added that the question of revising the Octroi Rules is under separate consideration in this office.

Hardly "revising". It is proposed to incorporate them in the Municipal Act. E. P. M.

61. A new rule (Registration Rules published under the Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 202, dated the 14th August 1871) has now been inserted in the revised list with suitable modifications.

62. Rule 15—(Rule declaring the Inam Procedure Rules hitherto in force in Mysore to be law.) No remarks.

63. Rules 16 and 17 relating to Court fees.—These have been superseded by other Rules and they are therefore omitted.

64. Rule 18. Rules for the custody and guardianship of minors.

Rule 19. Powers of Revenue Courts to summon and examine parties and witnesses in the investigation of Judicial cases.

Marked P.

Rule 20. Rules relating to Mysore Court Fees adhesive stamps.

Marked Q.

None of these Rules call for any remark.

65. Rule 21. Grant-in-aid Rules.—Mr. Sandford has been pleased to remark that these should be omitted as not law. The matter is one which has to be dealt with by Government in its executive capacity, and therefore the Rules are omitted.

66. Rule 22. Amended Rules in respect of certain Inam Villages.

Marked R.

Rule 23. Rules substituted for Mysore Land Inam Rule XIII.

Marked S.

These do not call for any Remark.

67. Rule 24. Rules for the reception and detention of lunatics.—Due alterations have been made in these Rules having regard to the present constitution of the Courts in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore. A rule has been inserted in the place of Rule 1 to the effect that the Resident may, with the sanction of the Government of India, establish an asylum or appoint the place or places which shall be used as such. At present the Lunatic Asylum belonging to the Durbar is used for the reception of the Lunatics of the Civil and Military Station also, but it seems inappropriate to include this Asylum in the Rules for the Civil and Military Station and therefore reference to that Asylum is omitted. It is under consideration to construct a building in the Civil and Military Station to serve as an Asylum. Until that building is completed, it seems necessary to continue the present arrangement of sending Native Lunatics to the Durbar's Asylum and European and Eurasian Lunatics to the Asylum at Madras. For this purpose a Notification by the Government of India would seem necessary.

Marked T.

Yes. I should think so. E. P. M.

68. Rule 25. Rules regarding the manufacture of earth salt.—These Rules are unimportant but they have been included as they have been sanctioned by the Government of India, and as they were included in the first list of rules. But as the Civil and Military Station is not situated within 5 miles of British territory on any side, the Rules may, it is submitted, be omitted.

69. Rule 26. Rules for the examination of Educational Officers in the Vernacular languages.—Mr. Sandford directed the omission of these Rules. They are really executive rules, and as such are inappropriate in this list of legal rules; again there are no separate Educational officers for the Civil and Military Station. The rules have therefore been omitted.

71. Rule 27. Rules for the establishment of Local Committees for the administration of Local Funds.—These Rules were struck out by Mr. Sandford, but the Dewan has, in his letter No. 4, dated the 5th April 1885, suggested that they should be included in the list. It is submitted however that there is no separate Local Fund Committee for the Civil and Military Station as there is a Municipal Board, and the income from local cesses has hitherto been credited to Government.

A proposal has also been submitted to the Government of India for the transfer of a portion of these cesses to the Municipality. Under these circumstances it is believed that the rules are out of place in the Civil and Military Station and they are omitted.

72. A new rule of 1874 which amends the Excise (Octroi) Rules has been added with suitable modifications.

73. Rule 29. Rules under the Christian Marriage Act.—No modifications had been made in these rules in the list originally prepared in this office. Proper modifications are now made. 75. Rule 30.—Rules for the maintenance and repair of Boundary Marks.—These rules amend the rules on the same subject referred to in para 52 above. As suggested in that paragraph these rules may, it is submitted, be omitted as they appear to have been framed only under the authority of the Chief Commissioner.

This method was followed in regard to the Acts also. The other general provisions contained in the rules have been suitably modified.

81. Rule 39. Rules for the Enrolment of Advocates and Pleaders.—These have been omitted from the list, because new rules have only recently been sanctioned by the Government of India. The old rules have been hitherto in force under the authority of Notification No. 126 G. P., dated the 28th April 1881, issued by the Foreign Department, and the new rules will have force in future as they have been issued for the Civil and Military Station under the authority of the Government of India. There is no need therefore to include the old or the new rules in this list, which simply declares rules issued before the 25th March 1881 to be still applicable to the Station.

82. Rule 40. Rules corresponding with Sections 30 & 31 of Act V of 1861. (The Prisoners' Act).—These rules were framed for Mysore, in which there are several jails and the Chief Commissioner could order the transfer of prisoners from one jail to another within his own jurisdiction. In the Civil and Military Station, however, there is no jail at all. The rules have been so modified as to authorize the Resident to transfer prisoners from one jail to another within the limits of the Station. It is not likely that there will ever be more than one jail in the Civil and Military Station, but the provision will, it is believed, not do any harm. In the original list as prepared in this office the rules were so modified as to authorize the Resident to transfer prisoners to any jail in Mysore. This however is manifestly incorrect.

84. Rules 42 and 43. Rules for Bench of Judges in Civil and Criminal Cases.—These have been omitted under the orders of Mr. Sandford. Under these rules the Chief Judge of Mysore used, before the rendition, to sit with the District Judge of the Nandidroog Division (Mr. Thumboo Chetty) in special cases of difficulty in which the advice of the latter gentleman was considered useful. It is doubtful whether it is necessary to follow the same procedure in the Civil and Military Station. The rules in question have been rescinded for the Civil and Military Station by the Notification of the Government of India, Foreign Department, No. 126 G. P., dated 28th April 1881, but the Government of India have in letter No. 123 I. The Chief Judge, however, suggested that two other Notifications No. 875, dated 26th February 1881 and No. 966, dated 4th June 1881, which repealed the Notification of 1879, should be inserted. It is found, however, on examination, that the Notifications named by the Chief Judge have again been repealed by Notifications of the Department of Finance and Commerce Nos. 1238 and 3515, dated respectively the 3rd March and 16th October 1882. These two Notifications are inserted in the list. None of the Notifications mentioned above were extended to Mysore or the Civil and Military Station, but as the Notification of 3rd March 1882 is mentioned in the list given by the Comptroller of Mysore with his letter No. 2274, dated 21st December 1882, that Notification has been inserted in the list, as also the amending Notification of the 16th October 1882.

The rule was made under Section 319 of the old Code of Criminal Procedure Act X of 1872. That Code has been repealed by Act X of 1882, which has been extended to the Civil and Military Station. That Act however does not contain any provision corresponding to Section 319 of the old Act. The provision has been transferred to Act IX of 1882 (Amendment of the Prisoners' Act) which is not in force in the Station. The rule now in question has therefore to be kept in force under Act IX of 1882, and the rule has been modified accordingly. (1) that the Rules should be arranged according to subjects and not according to dates ;

(2) that the Rules in existence should, wherever it is possible, be replaced by corresponding Acts of the Indian Legislature ;

(3) that accordingly the Acts named below may be extended to the Station :—

(a) Bombay Act XX of 1864, relating to minors,

(b) Act VI of 1878, relating to Treasure Trove,

(c) Act XXXV of 1858, relating to Lunatics, and (d) some Police Act in the place of the existing rules for the manufacture and sale of fire-works and for the registration of Talimkhanas ;

(4) that the Collector should have the management of the Abkari licenses under the Excise Act, not the President of the Municipality ;

(5) that the Octroi Rules should be dealt with by the Municipality ;

(6) that the present arrangement under which an officer of the Mysore State is Inspector General of Registration for the Civil and Military Station is anomalous, and therefore the present Sub-Registrar may rank as Registrar, and the Sessions Judge as Registrar General ; or the present arrangement may continue, only that the Resident should assume the duties of Registrar-General.

Assistant Resident's order dated 6th July in Office Note of File No. 464 calling for explanation as to the cause of delay in Printing the Revised List of Rules in force in the Civil and Military Station.

PRESS EXPLANATION.

On the 30th March last the first portion of the above List was sent to the Press, but only sufficient for a single page. The matter was at once set up, and more copy awaited. This was furnished on the 15th May, and on the 20*th* Idem a proof of the first form (4 pages) was sent to the Registrar at his request. This proof was returned on the 7th June with some further M. S. which was at once set up. The remaining portion however (more than one half of the whole) was not *sent to the Press till after the Registrar had left the Resident's Office. From the above it will be seen that want of copy alone prevented the work being printed more expeditiously, and that there was no delay on the part of the Press.

120. A clean proof of (Serial 41) List of Rules is also submitted.

121. As the proof was just now submitted from the Press it has not been compared in the office, and is submitted as it came from the Press to avoid delay.

P. S. K. 7—7—86.

122. Rules regarding Treasure Troves marked (1) in page 1 of the printed List.—

(a) These rules, it will be observed, have not the force of law inasmuch as they were not passed under the authority of the Government of India. They have, however, been included in the list by Mr. Anantaswamy Row, because the matter is, in his opinion, one which requires legal provision to be made for it. Colonel Hill suggests that these rules may be omitted, and that Indian Treasure Trove Act (VI of 1878) may be extended instead. Mr. Anantaswamy Row's answer to this is found in column 6 of page 1 opposite to Rule 1.

(b) These rules, it is submitted, were adapted from Madras Regulation XI of 1832 which has been repealed by Act VI of 1878 cited above. Mr. Anantaswami Rao admits that these rules will become law only hereafter if the Government of India be pleased to sanction its application to the Civil and Military Station. If legal sanction and character is to be given to them by a future Act of the Government of India, it is respectfully submitted that it seems rather more desirable to omit than have rules which were adapted from a repealed Regulation, and to apply separately for sanction to introduce the new Act. Colonel Hill has in fact applied separately for the extension of Act VI of 1878 to the Civil and Military Station in his letter No. 201, dated the 4th February 1886.

123. Rules under the Indian Stamp Act of 1879 and Amendment of Rules under the Indian Stamp Act of 1879.—(Rules marked (52) and (53) in the printed List).

The list to be submitted to the Government of India is only to contain, it is submitted, the rules issued before the 25th March 1881, as explained in para 81 of the notes above. In this view, these rules (52) and (53) are, it is submitted, out of place in the list as they are dated respectively 3rd March and 16th October 1882.

R° 3087 J dated 9 Sept 83

R° 3519 J dated 17 Oct 1885

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your Office ~~Memorandum~~ Endorsement on the ~~margin~~ margin, inviting my attention to Letter R° 678 dated 24 June 1882 from the ~~Hon~~ Offg Resident at Mysore to the Foreign Secretary, and inquiring when the Lists of Rules for the use of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, alluded to in that Letter, may be expected.

2. In reply I have the honor to bring to notice that the rules referred to were drawn up by Mr. Sandford ~~during~~ in October 1882 & were then referred to the Local ~~Administration~~ Officers for their opinions & the rules in connection with Revenue were at the same time forwarded to the Dewan of the Mysore State, but were not returned till the end of April, and so the delay in submitting them to the Govt of India has arisen.

3. Since the Rules were framed by Mr Sandford, several changes have taken place in the Administration of the

(Continuation of Note or Précis.)

Civil and Military Stations. Among such changes are

(1) The transfer of the powers of the High Court from the Chief Judge of Mysore to the Resident.

(2) The transfer of the powers of Collector, and Assistant formerly exercised by the Dep.y Comm.r of the Bangalore District & the Assistant of the Bangalore Taluk to the present District Magistrate, and Second Magistrate.

(3) The transfer of the Revenues of the assigned Tracts from the Bangalore District Treasury to the Residents' Treasury.

4. The after changes have necessitated a careful revision of the rules framed by Mr. Sandford - The work of revision is now nearly completed, and as soon as it is easy, the revised rules will be referred to the Local Administration Officers for their criticisms - I do not however anticipate any protracted delay, and trust at the latest to be able to submit the Revised List of Rules by the end of the current year for the final orders of the Govt. of India

Received with Colonel Hills D.O. Letter 7 dated 26th January 1886. (S4 No 42).

Memo by Colonel W. Hill, Civil and Sessions Judge on the Rules in force.

It would be more convenient for future reference were the Notifications arranged according to subjects such as Inam, Survey, Registration, Stamps &c:-

Wherever an Act may be extended to the Civil and Military Station, it is preferable the same should be done, to take the place of an old regulation.

Consequently I recommend the extension of Bombay Act XX of 1864 relating to the appointment of Guardians to Minors and persons incapable to Notification O modified in page 25.

Also Indian Act VI of 1878 relating to Treasure Trove, which is in force in Coorg, to Notification B modified in page 1.

Further Indian Act XXXV of 1858 relating to Lunatics to Notification J modified in page 35.

Moreover Excise Act No XXII of 1881, extended to Coorg and amended lately, so as to admit of a higher rate of duty to Notification I. If I be retained the Collector should have the management of the Abkari licenses and not the President of the Municipality

Col: Hill has since written to say that this portion should be omitted, as Act XXII of 1881 is already in force in the C & M Station. (Vide Col: Hill's Memo serial No 44)

The

The rules for the collection of Octroi in V and page 33 may left to be dealt with by the Municipality, to whom the proceeds are now made over: in the same manner as similar Notifications and Bye Laws were issued for the Mercara Municipality with respect to their sources of revenue.

Likewise II* and WW with respect to the manufacture and sale of fireworks and for the registration of Talim Khanas are matters that may be best dealt under a Police Act. It is questionable whether the latter Notification will as it stands, meet with the approval of the Government of India

The subordination of the Sub Registrar and Registrar of the Civil and Military Station, to an Officer of the Mysore Government is anomalous. The present Sub-Registrar may rank as Registrar, and the Sessions Judge as Registrar-General, or the present arrangement continue, only that the Resident should assume the duties of Registrar-General. A recommendation to this effect will be made.

a printed or manuscript copy of the whole of them, and it is probable that most of them will in a short time be superseded. For instance when the new Land
Revenue Regulations in preparation for any new territory becomes law it will probably be advisable to pass
it also for the C & M.
Stations, and all or most of the Rules relating to Survey, Inam, and Land Revenue matters will then be superseded.
Again the greater part of many of the Rules
referred to in the list are apparently not necessary when restricted to the area of the C. & M. Station, but it would be very difficult and not always safe to attempt to exclude all parts of the Rules which seem unnecessary. Therefore for the sake of simplicity

many portions of rules and Notifications which seemed unnecessary in the C. & M. Station have not been excluded
in revising the Rules.
For example in the case of the Rules for the administration of Forests and Waste Lands
the great bulk of the rules are clearly not required for the C. & M.
Station, but certain rules about Sandalwood are wanted, and a few other rules might possibly properly be formed applicable.

3 For the above reasons if a complete copy of the Rules in force is required I think the work of preparing and submitting one might be usefully deferred for a year or two, the draft of Rules and Modifications now submitted being accepted as sufficient during the interval.

4 I have therefore simply quoted the Rules and Modifications and added a column of such modifications as I am
